
AFTER EVACUATING THEIR school Monday morning, students from Appomattox County High School are seen participating in a musical program in the Memorial United Methodist Church. The evacuation was the result of a bomb threat telephone call.

Junior Club Visits Boys Home

Sunday was a most rewarding day for 6 members of the Appomattox Junior Woman's Club. They visited the Patrick Henry Boys Plantation in Brookneal.

There are 26 boys who live in dormitories at Patrick Henry, ranging in age 12 through 18. Each boy has his own duty to perform each day. Some of their jobs range from Gardening each year which provides the home with most of their vegetables, they raise their own beef. The boys maintain the upkeep of various parts of the dormitory.

There are two dorms at the home. One for younger boys and one for older boys. Each of these dorms have house parents. The Patrick Henry Boys Plantation is supported entirely by donations.

The Appomattox Junior Woman's Club is focusing all efforts to helping each boy individually rather than as a group. Each member has chosen one boy she will remember on special occasions such as birthdays, Thanksgiving and Christmas.

The six members were greeted by their six boys upon arrival Sunday after noon. There was a birthday party for the 6 boys who had a birthday in the month of Oct., Nov., and

Completes First Solo Flight

Jeanne Marie Nash, 16 year old and a student pilot, stands by her plane after completing her first solo flight on Wednesday, November 22, 1972, from Lynchburg Municipal Airport. So enthusiastic was Jeanne Marie, that again on Thursday, November 23rd, she soloed again, this time from Falwell's Airport just east of Lynchburg.

She has been flying with her father for about four years, but only has seven and one-half hours flying time with an instructor. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Nash of Route 3, Appomattox.

For Jeanne Marie, flying is just a hobby but she looks forward to November 3, 1973 , for this is the day she will become 17and can get her private pilot's license.

PURITAN PULPIT

SPONSORED BY BIBLE BAPTIST CHURCH

PERSEVERANCE
By Rev. E. W. Lucas

We read in Matt. 24:13, "But he that shall endure until the end the same shall be saved." If we will carefully read the context of the 24th chapter where this text is again used, we will find that our Lord very plainly expressed the great cost of discipleship. God's true children are distinguished from false professes in that true Christians endure unto the end. Perseverance is the badge of true saints. The same God who has ordained certain ends has also ordained the means by which these ends are to be accomplished. Should one of God's children apostatize, and thus fail to endure unto the end or to be faithful unto death they would be lost. However, God's grace sustains the true christian so that he does "endure unto the end". The Bible declares in Philippians 1:6 "That he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ."

Bible analogy shows us that it is Perseverance which must mark the Christian. How do I know the winner of the foot race? I must judge the winner at the goal and not at the starting line! Paul says, "They which run in a race run all but one receiveth the prize. It is not enough to start the race we must finish it!. We must endure unto the end.Are you being saved from sin?. "Give all diligence to make your calling and election sure."

CERTIFICATES SHOW SUPPLY LESS THAN REQUIREMENTS

Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation announced today that the annual gas supply certificates filed on December 1, 1972, pursuant to the provisions of the company's outstanding bonds and debentures showed an estimated overall supply less than the requirements applicable to four of the twenty-four separate issues of bonds and debentures now outstanding.

As a consequence, the 1973 semi-annual sinking fund payments on these four issues will be proportionately adjusted under a formula providing for final retirement of the respective issues by dates in 1986 which are from one and one-half to two and one-half years earlier than the stated maturity dates.

The four issues affected are the same as those on which the 1972 sinking funds have been adjusted on the basis of the gas supply certificates filed a year ago. The current certificates call for final retirement by dates either six months or one year earlier than the dates called for by the previous certificates.

The company will have the right to satisfy the 1973 adjusted sinking fund requirements on these four issues by surrendering for cancellation any of these bonds or debentures purchased by the company in the open market, including substantial amounts which have already been purchased and are now held by the company.

The company pointed out that the four issues affected last year and this year are governed by a definition which is more restrictive than the definition which applies to the company's more recent issues. The company is currently meeting the gas supply requirements applicable to these recent issues, which mature on dates ranging from October 1, 1989, to June 15, 1991.

Transco transports natural gas from Texas, Louisiana, and Mississippi to eleven Atlantic Coast states through an 8,600-mile pipeline system. About 71% of revenues are derived from customers in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland; 25% from Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina; and the balance from Georgia, Alabma and Mississippi.
